To the R E A D E R:

THis Sale consists of the Library of Monsieur Massauve, sometime Counsellor of Parliament at Montpellier, a Person generally fam'd for his great Wit, and extraordinary Knowledge in most parts of Polite Learning; which short Character, had I any reason to doubt of its Truth, the Books that he hath Collected, at great expence from several parts of Europe (even from the Original of Printing) of the most Celebrated and Learned Printers of the World, would abundantly convince me. I should not here repeat their Names did I not think it grateful and acceptable to the Curious, viz. Rob. Hen. Carol. P. Stephani, Ch. Plantinus, Aldus Manutius, Vascosanus, Mich. Parvus, Micæus, Gryphius, Crispinus, Colinæus, with the Ancient, and Modern Elzivirs, &c. (of whose delicate Letter and correct Editions of Books this ensuing Catalogue hath great Variety:) The viewing of which without possessing them, I fancy is an useful, and pleasing Entertainment to an Intelligent and Bookish Mind. And since I have so fair an occasion, I cannot but observe that the World is presented with more rare, and unusual Books, as well as considerable, in the Library of a Private Learned Man of 1000 Folios, than in 3000 from the best Stock of any Bookseller: An Instance of which may be given in this present Collection, which without Reflection hath some 100 Volumes of Valuable and fine Printed Books, not contained in the swelling Catalogue designed suddenly to be exposed to Sale, whose chiefest if not only Commendation (in the Opinion of some Learned Persons) is its being bulky, made so by the Duplicates of the Voluminous and Insipid Writings of the Casuists, and Schoolmen, truly defective of those famous and pompous Curiosities that the Learned World expected: But I leave the Gentlemen to judg, and determine, as indeed they ought for themselves, with this additional Request and new Proposal (that whereas Complaints have been made, and that lately, of the Imperfections of several old Books, and many new Ones, sold in Auctions) That all Gentlemen, &c. would be pleased to take care to Examine, and Collate their Books before they be taken away, or cause them to be done, which if they want a fit Person both skilful and faithful, they shall be assisted with one for their Purpose on the most reasonable Considerations; and as this may be one way to encourage the Buyers, when they may be in some measure secure of the Perfection of their Books: So I further believe, and hope it may perfectly remove all other Scruples that yet remain in the minds of any, as to the sincerity and fairness of the Auctionarian Undertakings.

This

THis Auction will begin on Wednesday the first of February, 1687, at the Sign of the Black-Swan, over against the South Door of St. Paul's Church (amongst the Wollen-Drapers) in St. Paul's Church-Yard, continuing Day by Day, the first five Days of every Week, till all the Books are sold, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two to Six in the Evening.

Conditions of Sale.

I. That he who bids most, is the Buyer ; and if any Difference arise, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book, or Books, shall be forthwith exposed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect ; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That all Gentlemen,&c. Buyers do give in not only their Surnames, but Christian, as also their Places of Abode, with the signs they Live, or Lodg at, to the end that every Person may have Justice done him in the buying, and in the delivery ; which new Condition is now proposed, to prevent the Inconveniencies that have more or less hitherto attended the Undertakers, and also the Purchasers, by reason that several Persons, out of Vanity and Ostentation, have appeared and bought, to the damage and disappointment of the Parties they outbid, and have not been so kind to their own Reputation, or just to the Proprietors, as to pay for and fetch them away.

IV. That the Money for the Book or Books so bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction is ended, at the Place where they are sold, where constant attendance shall be given for that Month, Day by Day, from Nine of the Clock in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two till Six in the Evening, for Receipt of the Money, and Delivery of the Books.

V. The Books, for satisfaction of the Buyers, will be exposed to view for one whole Week before the Sale, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon to Six, which is the rather desired they being generally beautifully bound.

That for the further conveniency of the Learned Gentlemen in Cambridge and Oxford, and all other Places where this Catalogue may come, who have not Friends in the City, that are proper and skilful Agents to act for them, or at least cannot constantly attend the Auction, if they please to send their Commissions in time, containing the Page and Number of the Book so desired, the Price they are willing to give for each, with Orders to whom they shall be delivered when bought, and of whom the Money shall be received, they shall be faithfully executed, directing their Letters to the Auction-House mentioned on the Title Page,

For their humble Servant EDWARD MILLINGTON.
